

AKMU Suhyun's Voice Brings Naver Webtoon-Based Animation "Your Letter" to Life This Fall

This article highlights how a domestic webtoon-based animation with strong emotional storytelling and AKMU Suhyun's OST and voice acting has boosted its artistic appeal and global potential. The film's multi-festival recognition shows that Korean webtoon animations are becoming culturally rich, exportable creative assets.

□ From Naver Webtoon to Award-Winning Film

- This animation is based on Hyun-ah Cho's webtoon "Your Letter", originally published in 2018 on Naver as a 10-part summer special
- The story follows transfer student "Sori" who discovers mysterious letters that guide her on a sentimental journey

□ Global and Domestic Festival Success

- Official selections at Ottawa International Animation Festival (OIAF) and Animator: International Animated Film Festival, an Academy-qualifying event
- Won three awards at Bucheon International Animation Festival: Jury Award (Feature), Music Award, and Technical Award

□ AKMU Suhyun's Dual Role Enhances Emotional Impact

- Suhyun voices the lead character and performs the OST with her signature pure, emotional tone
- The previewed soundtrack deepens the film's atmosphere of youthful discovery and subtle romance

□ Teaser Reveals Introspective Coming-of-Age Story

- The teaser's visuals and narration create a soft, nostalgic mood perfect for the target audience
- The recurring line "I wonder who you are, so kind and gentle" hints at a mystery-driven coming-of-age romance

Source

EToday. (2025. 8. 5) <https://www.EToday.co.kr/news/view/2494338> (Korean version only)